

Coca-Cola

Beat Q1, Reiterated OSG and EPS 2025 Guidance,
Remains a Port in a Storm

JPM View/Expected Stock Reaction: Slightly Positive. The combination of the beat in Q1 (across the P&L - more below), and reiteration of organic sales growth (OSG) driven by volumes and comparable EPS 2025 guidance (underlying 100bps worse but offset by 100bps better FX) should give investor reassurance that KO remains a high quality staples investment. We remain constructive on the name as a "port in a storm" amid macro volatility as we called in our preview (link). It's diversified geographic footprint and all-weather strategy allow it to effectively navigate the dynamic operating environment and often times offset softness in certain markets with strength in others (e.g., softness in developed markets offset by strength in developing). The 1 point reduction to currency-neutral EPS growth ostensibly given trade-related cost impacts is manageable and benchmarks favorably against peers (as expected) and the softening USD offsets the impact, which is a positive. KO is a relatively crowded long, so we wouldn't expect an outsized move in shares despite the relative better results/outlook vs. peers, although we would expect investors to remain positive on the stock. We are not minimizing the regulatory risk of MAHA and GLP-1, but we note that the U.S. represents only about ~17% of volumes. Also, KO is increasingly pivoting to non-CSD offerings including protein (fairlife), premium water (Topo Chico) and coffee (Costa), which dilutes this risk.

- The Coca-Cola Company (KO, Overweight rated) reported 1Q25 comparable EPS of $0.73, which beat JPMe/consensus $0.70/$0.72 by +4%/+1%. Upside vs. our estimates was driven by lower-than-expected SG&A ratio (+$0.02 vs. JPMe) and stronger-than-expected gross margin (+$0.01 vs. JPMe). OSG of +6% came in ahead of JPMe/Consensus Metrix (CM) +5.6%/+5.1%, or +7% on a unit case volume basis vs. JPMe/CM +7.2%/+6.0%. Unit case volumes were +2% (vs. JPMe/CM +1.0%/+0.4%) while concentrate shipments were +1% (vs. JPMe/CM -0.6%/-0.3%). Management attributed the one point delta between unit cases and concentrate shipments due to two fewer calendar days in the quarter, partially offset by timing of shipments. Price/mix was +5% (vs. JPMe/CM +6.2%/+5.6%). Gross margins of 62.6% were about +30 bps YOY (underlying +70 bps YOY, FX -60 bps YOY, structural +30 bps YOY) and came in ahead of JPMe/consensus 62.3%/62.0%. Operating expense ratio of 28.8% was 100 bps favorable YOY and compared to JPMe/consensus 29.8%/29.0%. See full details in Table 2 and segment OSG performance in Table 3.

KO reiterated headline elements of 2025 guidance while making some adjustments on FX-neutral EPS and FX impact (see summary and Table 1 comparing JPMe and Street):

- OSG of +5-6% unchanged (vs. JPMe/CM +5.8%/+5.7% into today)
- Comparable EPS growth of +2-3% unchanged (vs. JPMe/consensus +2.8%/+2.6% into today), or implied about $2.94-$2.97 (vs. JPMe/consensus

The chart(s) show J.P. Morgan's continuing coverage of the stocks; the current analysts may or may not have covered it over the entire period. J.P. Morgan ratings or designations: OW = Overweight, N= Neutral, UW = Underweight, NR = Not Rated

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock's expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts' coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst's coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan's Research website, <https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com>.
