Adjusting for Share Split and Sovereign AI

We update our NVDA PT and EPS to adjust for the company's 10-1 stock split and add incremental Sovereign AI dollars to our revenue forecast.

We appreciate your 5-star vote in the 2024 Institutional Investor All-America Survey in the U.S. Semiconductors & Semiconductor Capital Equipment category. Vote for Barclays »

Following the 10-1 stock split that went into effect this past Friday at market close, we adjust our share count, resulting EPS, and PT. Additionally, we revise up our CY25/FY26 revenue expectations to $157.1B, reflecting ~$25B in incremental AI product revenue from the Sovereign AI opportunity that we believe accelerates significantly next year (see our ChatGDP: Sizing Sovereign AI note from last month). Net-net, this adds $0.61 in EPS on a post-split basis and takes our PT to $145 applying the same 40x P/E multiple to our new $3.62 CY25/FY26 EPS estimate.

Price (07-Jun-2024) USD 1,208.88
Price Target USD 145.00

Why OVERWEIGHT?

We are OW as the company has long-term sustainable growth led by a large lead in GPUs for AI in DC, with further Edge opportunities (Autos, robots, etc.) and a competitive moat around a large portion of the market.

Upside case USD 180.00

Our upside case of $180 is based upon 45x our upside CY25E non-GAAP EPS of $4.00, which assumes larger TAM for AI in the DC, higher Networking attach, and higher GMs.

Downside case USD 80.00

Our downside case of $80 is based upon 35x our downside CY25E non-GAAP EPS of $2.30, which assumes a correction of AI spending in the DC, a slower Auto ramp and pricing/share pressure.

Upside/Downside scenarios

Changes to Estimates

Our price target of $145 is based upon 40x our CY25E non-GAAP EPS of $3.62.

Our prior price target of $1200 was based upon 40x our CY25E non-GAAP EPS of $30.08 or $120 based on 40x $3.01 on a post-split basis.

Our coverage analysts use a relative rating system in which they rate stocks as Overweight, Equal Weight or Underweight (see definitions below) relative to other companies covered by the analyst or a team of analysts that are deemed to be in the same industry (the "industry coverage universe").

In addition to the stock rating, we provide industry views which rate the outlook for the industry coverage universe as Positive, Neutral or Negative (see definitions below). A rating system using terms such as buy, hold and sell is not the equivalent of our rating system. Equal Weight - The stock is expected to perform in line with the unweighted expected total return of the industry coverage universe over a 12-month investment horizon.

Underweight - The stock is expected to underperform the unweighted expected total return of the industry coverage universe over a 12-month investment horizon.

Rating Suspended - The rating and target price have been suspended temporarily due to market events that made coverage impracticable or to comply with applicable regulations and/or firm policies in certain circumstances including where the Investment Bank of Barclays Bank PLC is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or strategic transaction involving the company.

Industry View

Positive - industry coverage universe fundamentals/valuations are improving.

Environmental, Social, and Governance ('ESG') Related Research: There is currently no globally accepted framework or definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, an 'ESG', 'green', 'sustainable', 'climate-friendly' or an equivalent company, investment, strategy or consideration or what precise attributes are required to be eligible to be categorised by such terms. This means there are different ways to evaluate a company or an investment and so different values may be placed on certain ESG credentials as well as adverse ESG-related impacts of companies and ESG controversies. The evolving nature of ESG considerations, models and methodologies means it can be challenging to definitively and universally classify a company or investment under an ESG label and there may be areas where such companies and investments could improve or where adverse ESG-related impacts or ESG controversies exist. The evolving nature of sustainable finance related regulations and the development of jurisdiction-specific regulatory criteria also means that there is likely to be a degree of divergence as to the interpretation of such terms in the market. We expect industry guidance, market practice, and regulations in this field to continue to evolve. Any references to 'sustainable', 'sustainability', 'green', 'social', 'ESG', 'ESG considerations', 'ESG factors', 'ESG issues' or other similar or related terms in this document are as used in our public disclosures and not to any jurisdiction-specific regulatory definition or other interpretation of these terms unless specified otherwise.
